DUALpro

Particularly noteworthy is the progress with the project "GIIVET - DUAL Indo-German Certification for VET programs" of the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE) in cooperation with the AHK Indien (IGCC). Under this project, training institutes known as German Indian Institutes for Vocational Education and Training (GIIVET) are to be set up which would follow a jointly agreed curriculum based on the tried and tested German curriculum and German quality standards. For the first time, one exam would lead to simultaneous awarding of a German and an Indian certificate. This is the first project of its kind across the globe.

It is a matter of great pride to see the mechanism work smoothly and at a fast pace with both the Indian side and the German side showing equal enthusiasm to make this project LIVE at the earliest possible. Now with the GIIVET affiliation norms approved by both sides and curriculums approved for 05 trades, the wheels have already been set in motion. The industry has also been proactive and some big players have approached to be part of the project. An MoA between MSDE and IGCC will be signed soon.
