

The logo for INTORQ, featuring the brand name in white capital letters on an orange rectangular background.

setting the standard

The INTORQ brand stands for reliable brake solutions of the highest standard.

Career of your life: INTORQ

INTORQ produces 800.000 electromagnetic brakes and clutches yearly. Approx. 51 Mio Euro turnover are being made by 250 employees. As market leader in Europe we set the standard in the field of spring operated electromagnetic brakes. INTORQ has expanded its international presence with the establishment of offices in Shanghai, Atlanta and in Pune.

For the purpose of expanding our market leading position in Europe and our international extension plans to be successful we acquire for our wholly owned subsidiary in Pune:

MRP Controller (m/f)

Objectives:

- | Production planning
- | Checking the stock availability in factory
- | Ordering new production items on time
- | Co-ordination with purchase and production department to order on time
- | Checking and scheduling of customer orders
- | Checking import documents
- | Co-ordination with local and international supplier
- | Support in other departments, accounting and purchase
- | Processing and evaluating of customer complaints

Your Profile

- | Degree in commerce, science, engineering
- | Min 2 years of professional experience as MRP controller
- | Knowledge of SAP R3 is must
- | Conference competitive English knowledge (written and verbally)
- | Assertiveness, decision powers, communication and team competence, technical way of thinking as well as personal initiative

Position: Full time

Location: Chakan, Pune

Contact for further information: denise.eichhorn@indo-german.com

www.intorq.com