Forum on Business Management in the 21st Century: Legal, Ethical, Moral and Spiritual Challenges, 10 May, 2019, Mumbai

Business ethics have been in use since the days of Aristotle. Although they have evolved since that time, in the 21st century the concept of a moral and ethical approach to business remains relevant. More than competence, experience, intelligence and drive, people at all levels of an organization need ethical values, in Europe often referred to as the concept of the respectable merchant.

The Indo-German Chamber of Commerce, the Xavier School of Management and the FriedrichEbert-Stiftung are organizing a discussion on Legal, Ethical, Moral, Spiritual Challenges for business management in Mumbai on Friday, 10th May 2019 from 15.00 to 18.00 hrs. The forum will start with a keynote address by Fr. Ozzie Mascarenhas, S.J. JRD Tata Chair Professor of Business Ethics at XLRI, followed by a panel discussion with representatives from academia, companies and trade unions.

More information and the possibility to register can be found on the IGCC web site. For questions, contact Sebastian Soenksen (sebastian.soenksen@indo-german.com) or call 022-66652123
